Investigation Meeting: 20 September 2010 at Dunedin

Determination: 20 September 2010

CONSENT DETERMINATION OF THE AUTHORITY

[1] At the commencement of the investigation meeting this morning, the parties sensibly decided to devote some energy to resolving matters by agreement.

[2] They have now reached a full and final agreement between them and that agreement becomes the determination of the Authority. At the request of the parties the terms of the parties agreement is to remain confidential between them and an order is made prohibiting publication pursuant to Schedule 2, Clause 10(2) of the Employment Relations Act 2000.

[3] The parties are to be commended for this resolution of their differences on their own terms.

[4] As a consequence of the foregoing, the proceedings are no longer on foot and all matters between the parties have been resolved by their agreement.

James Crichton
Member of the Employment Relations Authority
