COSTS DETERMINATION OF THE AUTHORITY

In a determination dated 25 November 2005, the Authority upheld Ms Harwood's personal grievance claim and awarded various remedies. Costs were reserved.

Ms Harwood wrote to the Authority asking for a costs award to cover her lodgement fee of $70. The letter was copied to the respondent with a request for any comment within 14 days. Nothing has been received.

Ms Harwood was successful and I see no reason not to award costs to cover her lodgement fee. Accordingly the respondent is ordered to pay Ms Harwood $70.00.
