CONSENT DETERMINATION OF THE EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS AUTHORITY

[1] On 15 August 2016 I issued a determination in which I addressed a claim brought by the Labour Inspector.¹ The determination subsequently attracted a reopening application.

[2] The parties have resolved the issues raised in the reopening application and ask their settlement be recorded as a consent determination. I accept the request and make the following orders.

[3] The respondents, Allan Marx and Paul Roberts as trustees of Vintage Farm Trust, are jointly and severally responsible for paying the sum of $1,000.00 (one thousand dollars) to the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment as a contribution toward the Ministry's costs.

[4] Allan Marx and Paul Roberts are to pay the Ministry a further $71.56 (seventy one dollars and fifty six cents) as reimbursement of the filing fee incurred by the Ministry when making the reopening application.
