CONSENT DETERMINATION OF THE EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS AUTHORITY

Employment relationship problem

[1] At the conclusion of today's investigation meeting the parties advised the Authority that they had reached a settlement of all employment relationship issues between them.

[2] The terms and conditions of the parties' settlement are recorded in a confidential Terms of Settlement agreement which was signed by both parties ("the Settlement").

[3] By consent, the terms recorded in the Settlement, which were agreed to and signed by the parties today, now become orders of the Authority. As orders of the Authority, the terms of the Settlement are final, binding and enforceable.

[4] The parties have agreed that the terms of the Settlement are to remain confidential and they have asked that a non-publication order be issued to enable that to occur.

[5] For the purposes of preserving confidentiality I make a further order pursuant clause 10 of the Second Schedule of the Employment Relations Act 2000 prohibiting the publication of the terms of Settlement.

[6] The original signed Settlement is therefore not attached to this determination but will instead be held on the Authority's file and may not be accessed without the Authority's authorisation.
