CONSENT DETERMINATION OF THE AUTHORITY

Employment relationship problem

[1] During the course of the Authority's investigation, the parties were able to resolve their employment relationship problems by agreement.

[2] They have requested the Authority issue a consent determination, recording the terms of their agreement. By consent and by this determination, the terms contained in the parties' agreement become orders of the Authority.

[3] Pursuant to clause 10 of the Second Schedule of the Employment Relations Act 2000, the contents of the agreement including the names of the parties are subject to a non-publication order.
