INTERIM NON-PUBLICTAION ORDER OF THE EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS AUTHORITY

Employment relationship problem

[1] The Authority has received an application for a non-publication order regarding the substantive determination dated 28 February 2017. The Authority has not yet had an opportunity to hear evidence or submissions on the substance of that application.

[2] I consider it appropriate to issue an interim non-publication order to preserve the position until the Authority can hear submissions from all concerned before finally determining whether the non-publication order sought should be issued because to do otherwise runs the risk of any subsequent non-publication order being rendered nugatory.

[3] I consider that there is no good reason for the material information to be publicly available until the substantive issues regarding such material have been investigated and substantively determined.

[4] Accordingly, I make an interim non-publication order under clause 10 of the Second Schedule of the Employment Relations Act 2000 prohibiting the publication of the material identified in the non-publication application filed yesterday by Ms Twaddle relating to the substantive determination until further order of the Authority.
